

FRIENDS OF LLANSANTFFRAED CHURCH

Do you wish to see Llansantffraed Church and churchyard remain in public use for this and future generations? Have you used the Church for family Baptisms, Weddings, Funerals or might your family wish to do so in the future?

To operate and maintain the church costs over £6,000 per year (pre lockdown figure, excludes major repairs) and the building can only be kept open for public use by the help and generosity of those in the local community and other supporters further afield who love and cherish it. The church is just emerging from a difficult time during lockdown and the retirement of the previous long-serving Church Committee. A new Church Committee is now in place and hopes to continue to broaden the public use of the church to secure its future. It also wishes to rejuvenate the Friends of Llansantffraed Church to boost the church's income.

Are you willing to help Llansantffraed Church stay open for public use by joining the “Friends of Llansantffraed Church”? If so, could you give £25 + per year to help keep this Church alive? This could help to secure the future of the Church for regular monthly services, for baptisms, weddings and funerals, for special services such as at Christmas, Easter and harvest, for orchestral and choir concerts, for visitors to drop in to, for events linked to Henry Vaughan - the renowned Breconshire poet and physician who lived in the parish and was buried in the churchyard in 1695, and for further new and appropriate activities.

So what will you receive in return? A stake in maintaining the church for the future, and the Church Committee will keep you informed about the wellbeing and activities of the church, including information on special events and efforts to broaden the church's public use.
